

Q1 What country are you working in?

Answered: 50 Skipped: 2

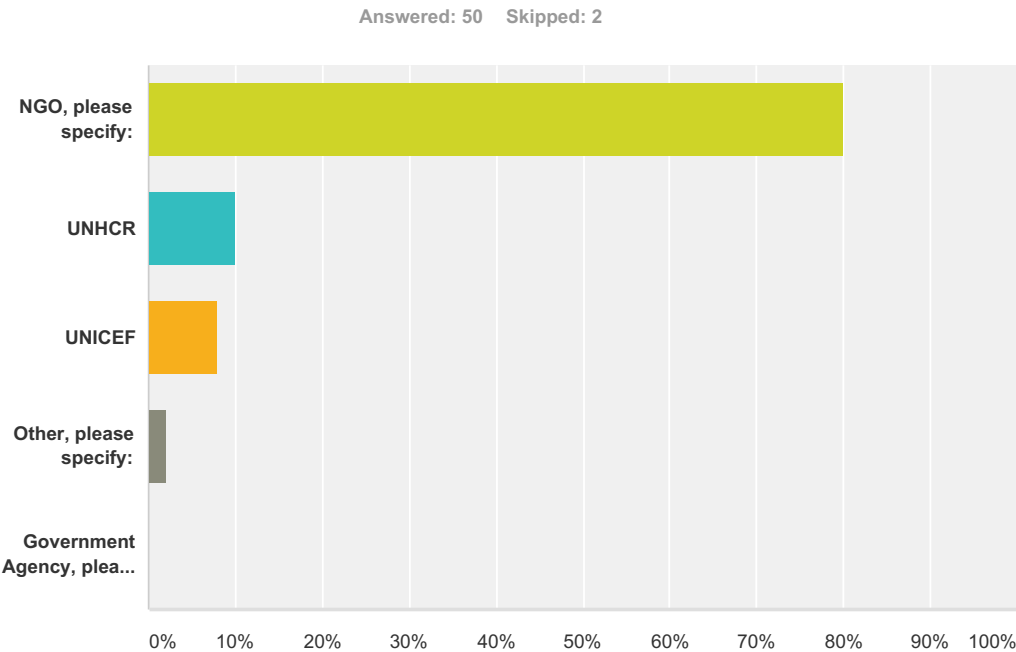

Q2 What level of responsibility do you have in your current operation

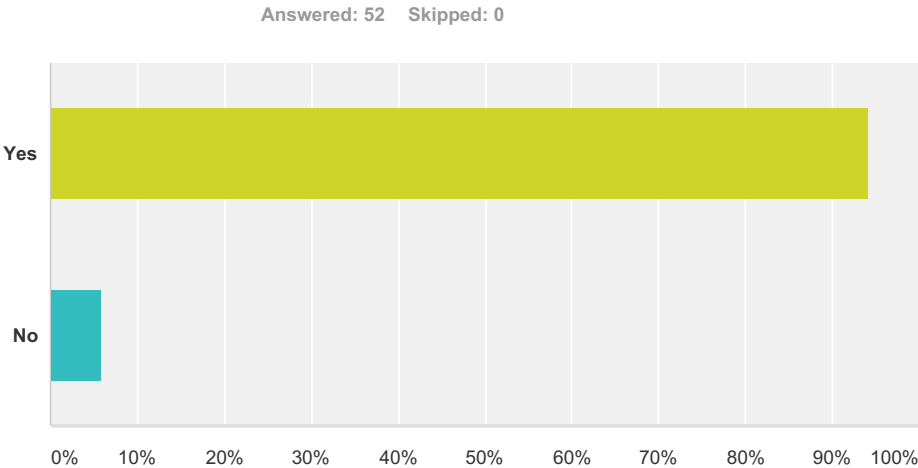

Answered: 48 Skipped: 4

Q3 What organization do you currently work for?

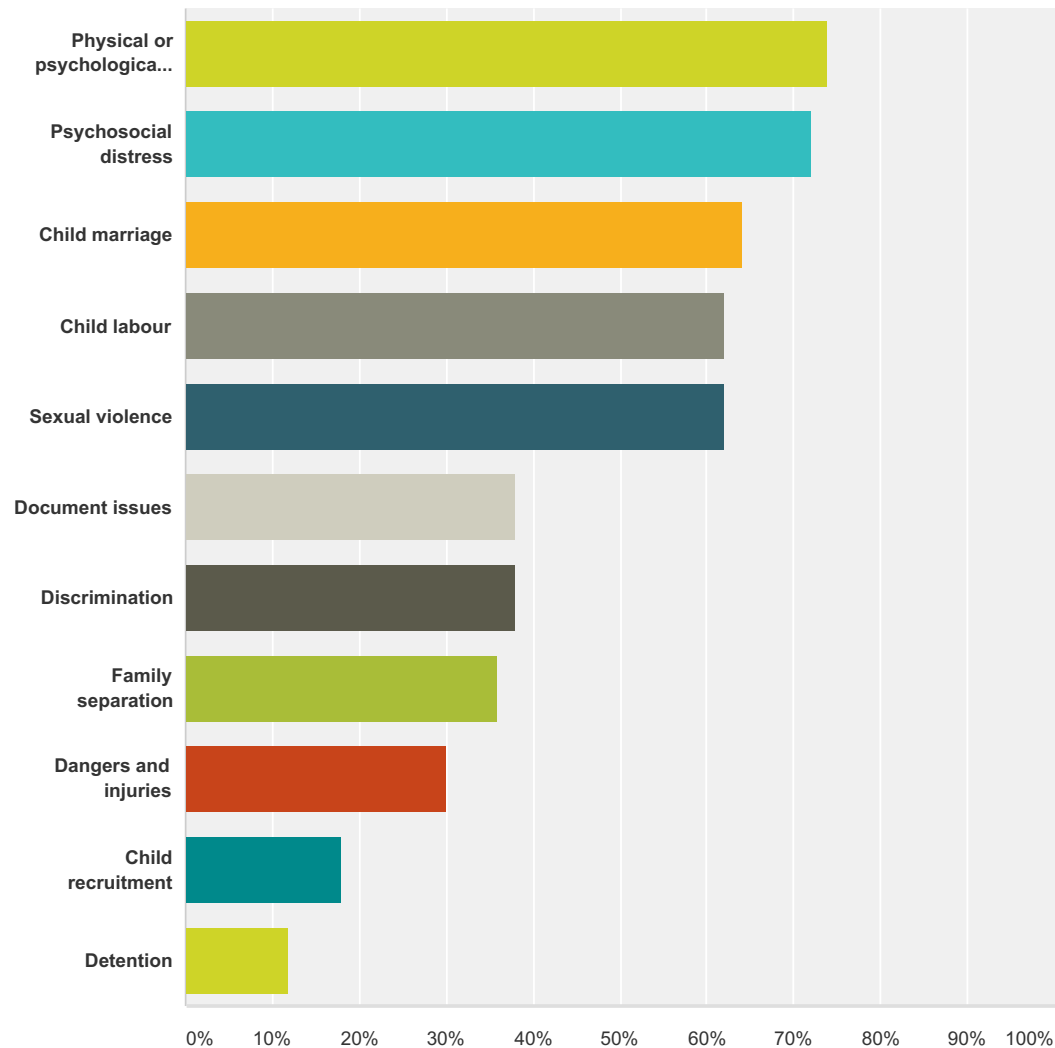

Q4 Are there community based projects or initiatives that seek to respond or prevent child protection concerns in your organisation (or supported by your organisation)?

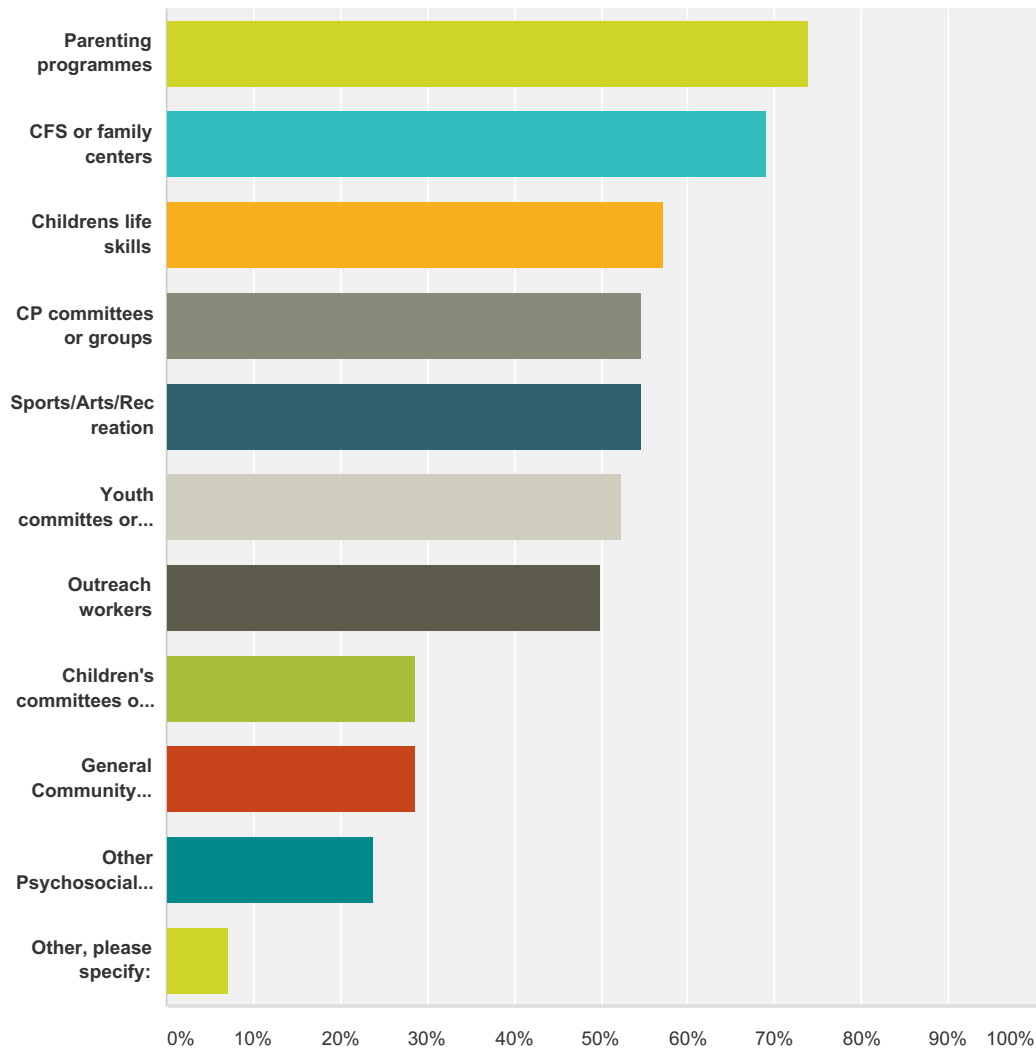

Q5 What specific child protection issues do community-based child protection programs target in your operation?

Answered: 50 Skipped: 2

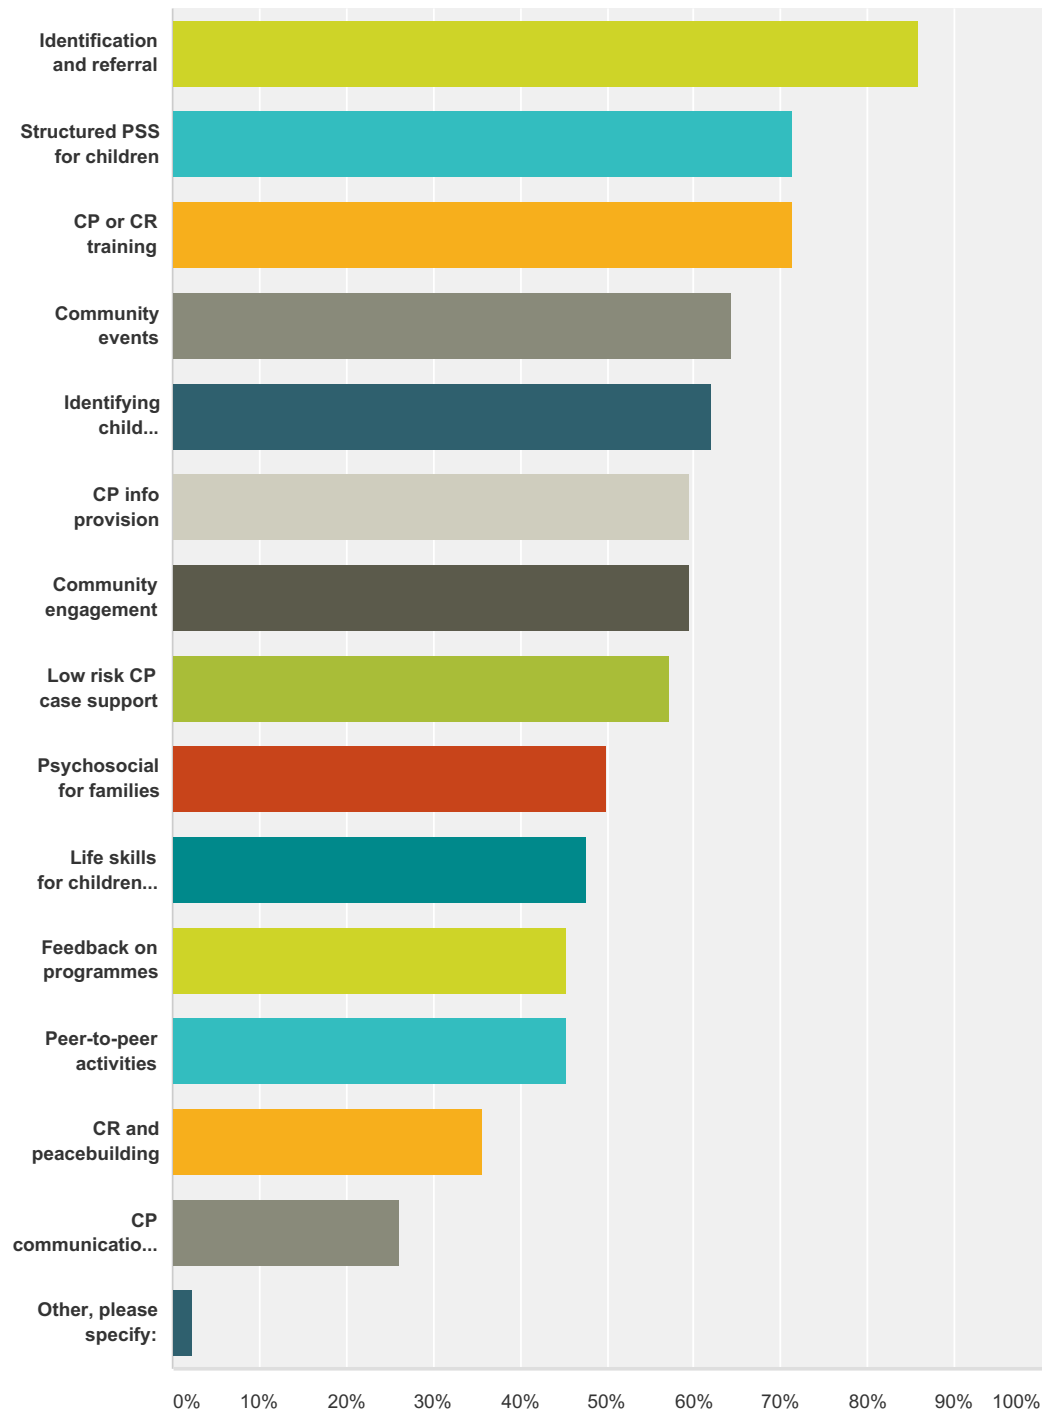

Q6 What type of community based programs are taking place?

Answered: 42 Skipped: 10

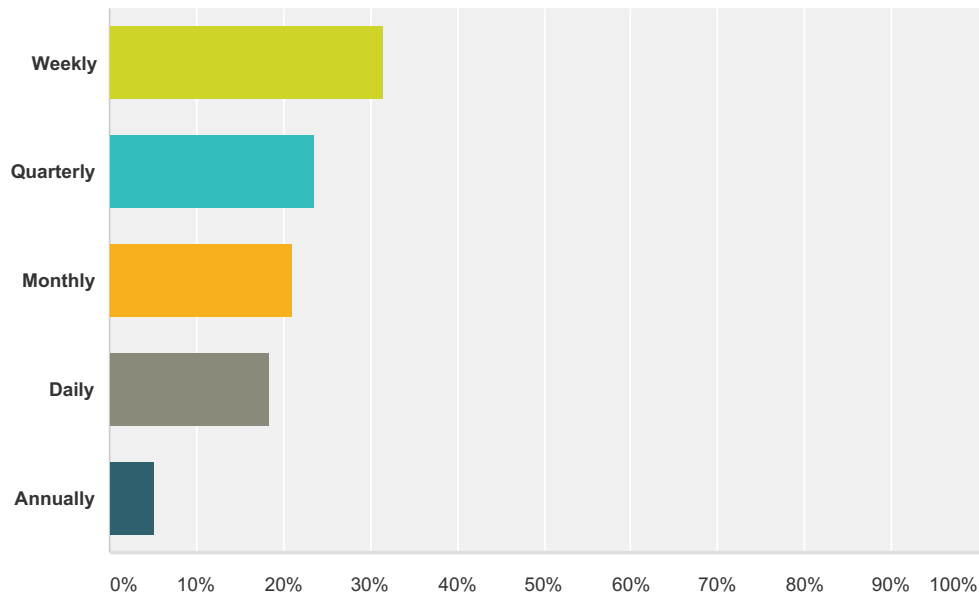

Q7 What types of activities are being carried out through community-based programs?

Answered: 42 Skipped: 10

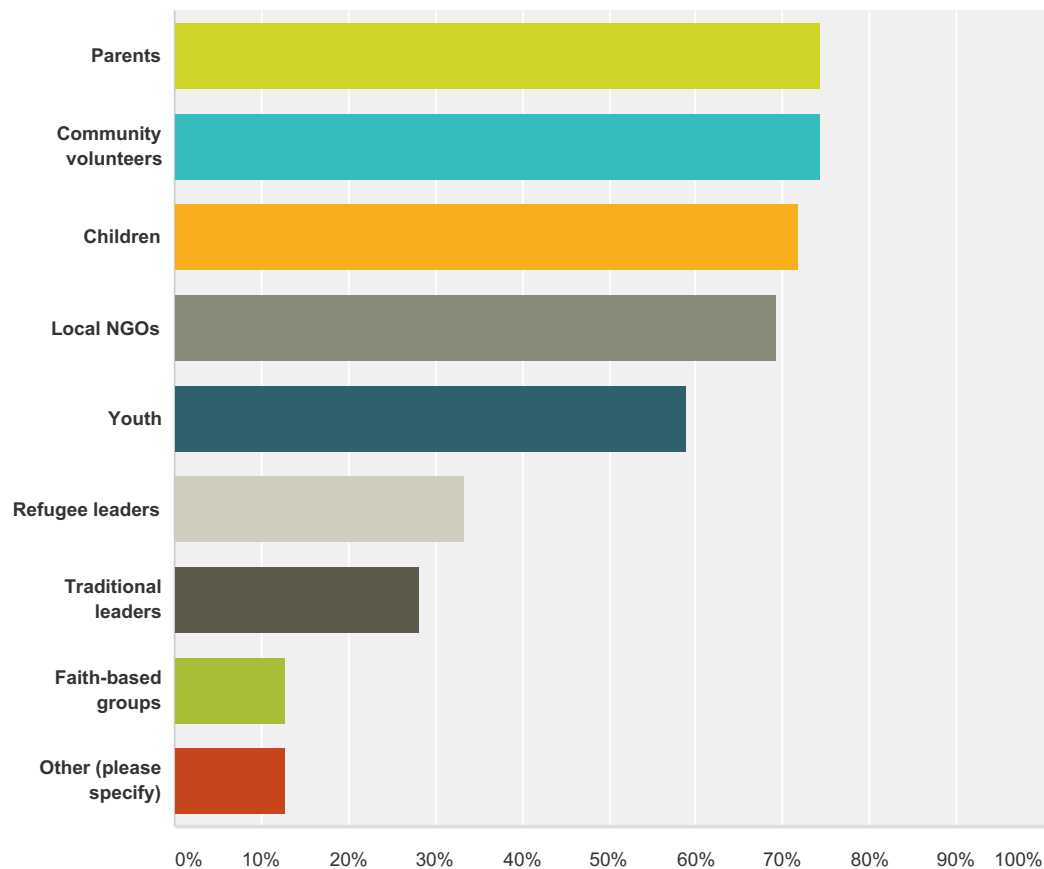

Q8 In your role, how often do you meet or engage with community groups or entities?

Answered: 38 Skipped: 14

Q9 With whom, do you engage normally?

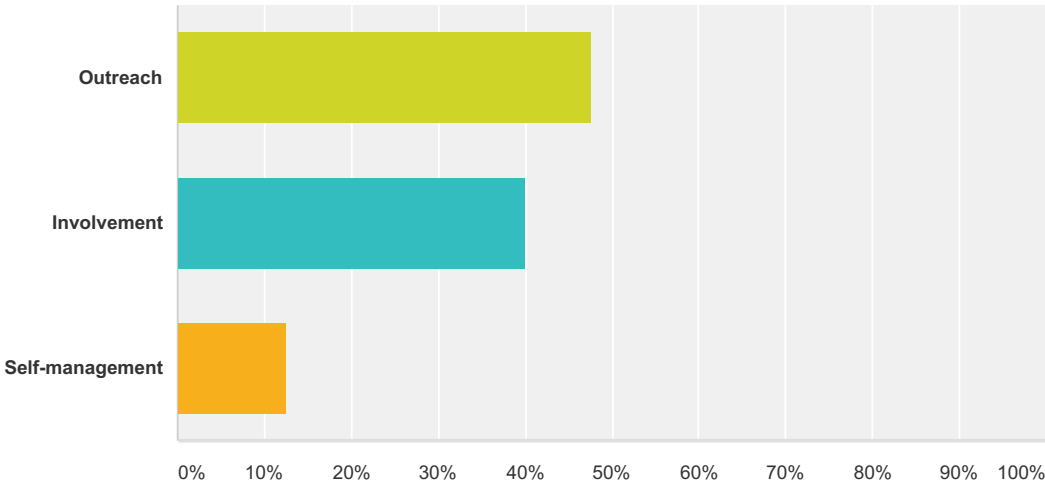

Answered: 39 Skipped: 13

Q10 In your community-based child protection programs, what is level of engagement with children?

Answered: 40 Skipped: 12

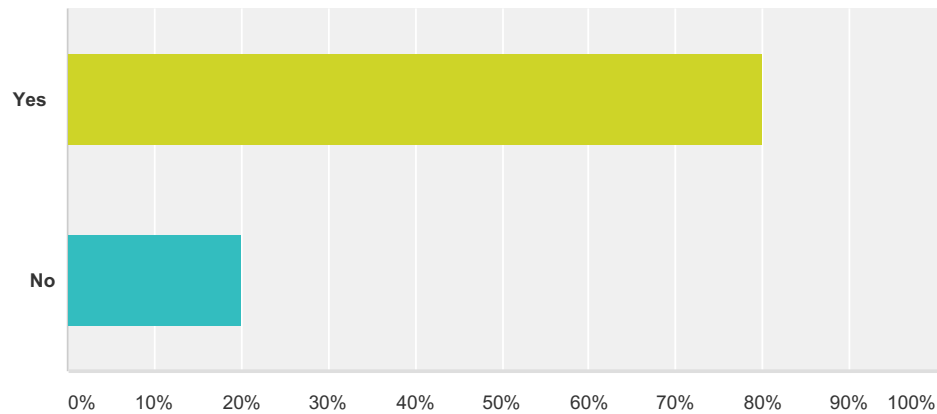

Q11 In your community-based child protection programs, what is level of engagement with adults?

Answered: 40 Skipped: 12

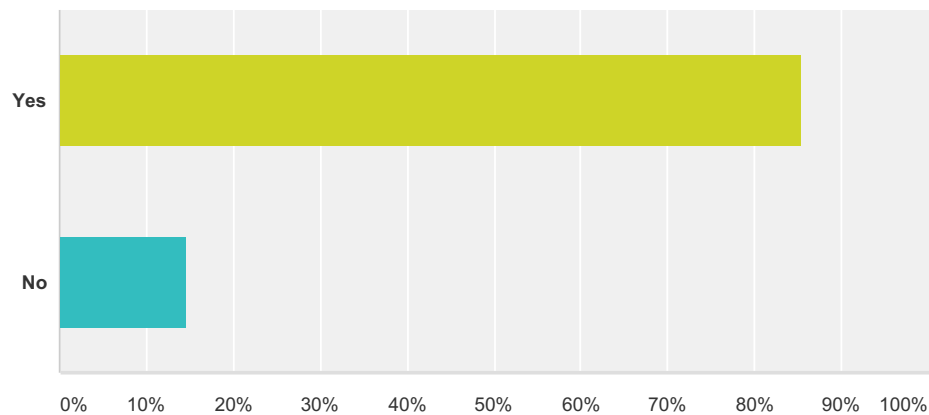

Q12 Have community-based child protection groups been trained on referral pathways?

Answered: 35 Skipped: 17

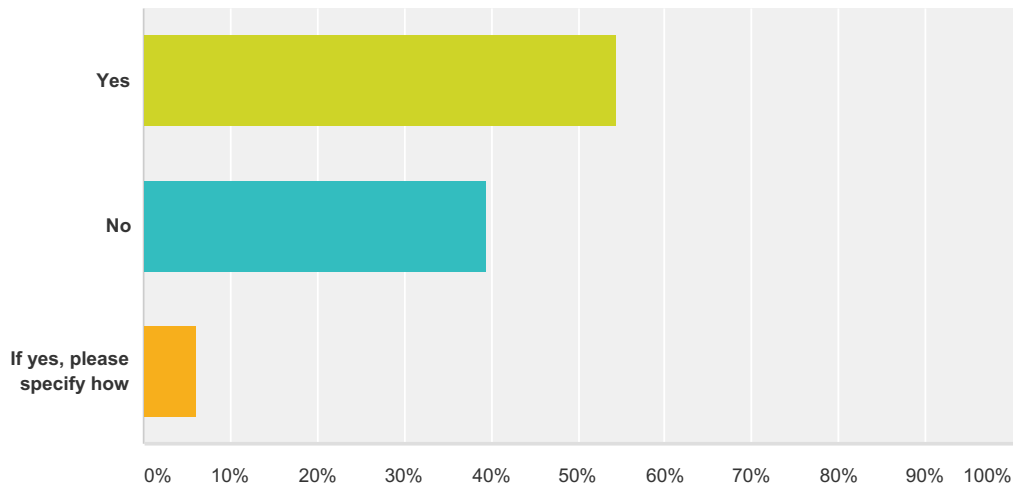

Q13 Are community-based child protection groups been actively involved in identifying and referring to formal service providers?

Answered: 34 Skipped: 18

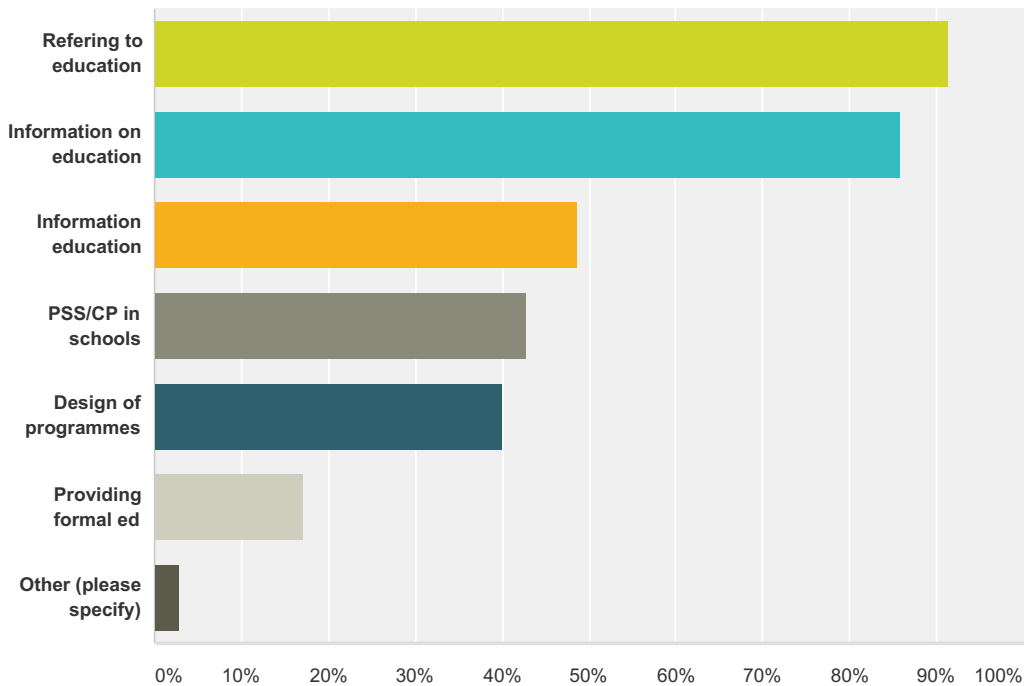

Q14 Do community groups work in collaboration with formal service providers?

Answered: 33 Skipped: 19

Q15 How do community-based child protection programmes link with educational programmes?

Answered: 35 Skipped: 17

Q16 How are community-based child protection programs linked with other sectors (not including education)? (Please describe.)

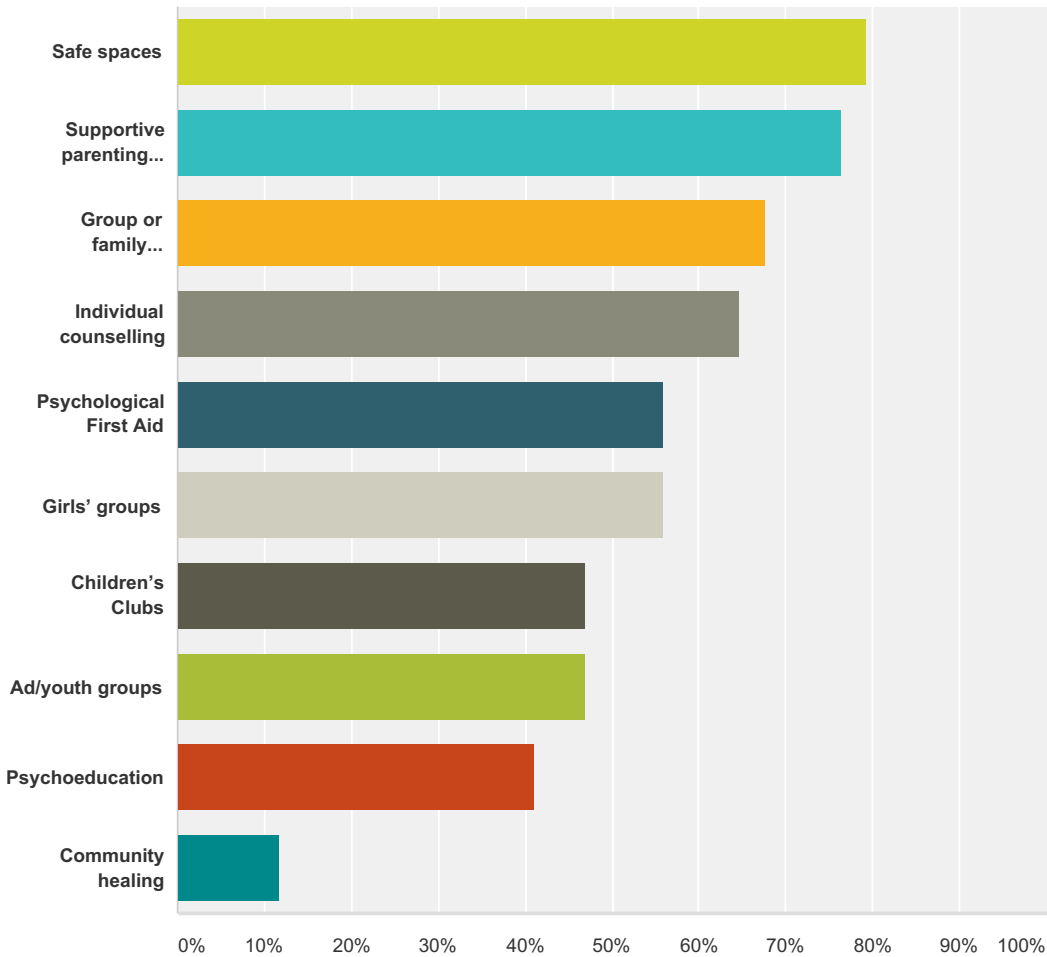

Answered: 27 Skipped: 25

Q17 How do community-based child protection programs target beneficiaries?
(Please describe.)

Answered: 27 Skipped: 25

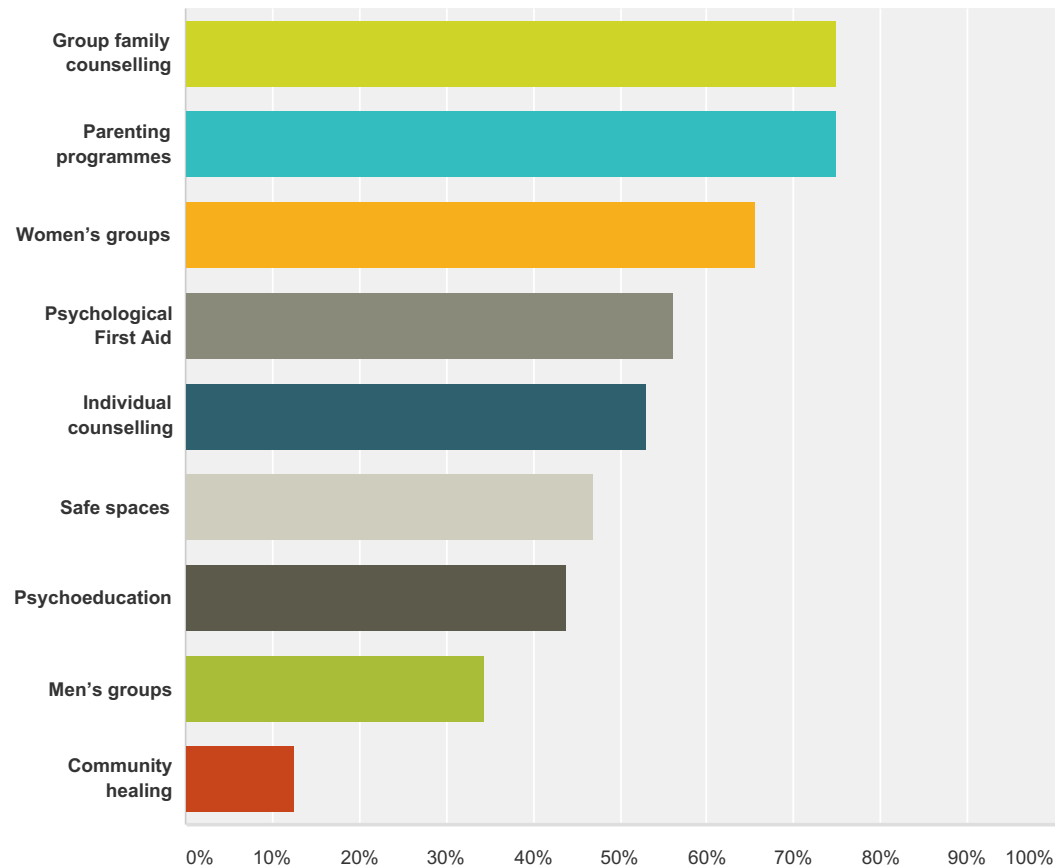

Q18 For your psychosocial community-based programs, what specific types of psychosocial support are being provided for children?

Answered: 34 Skipped: 18

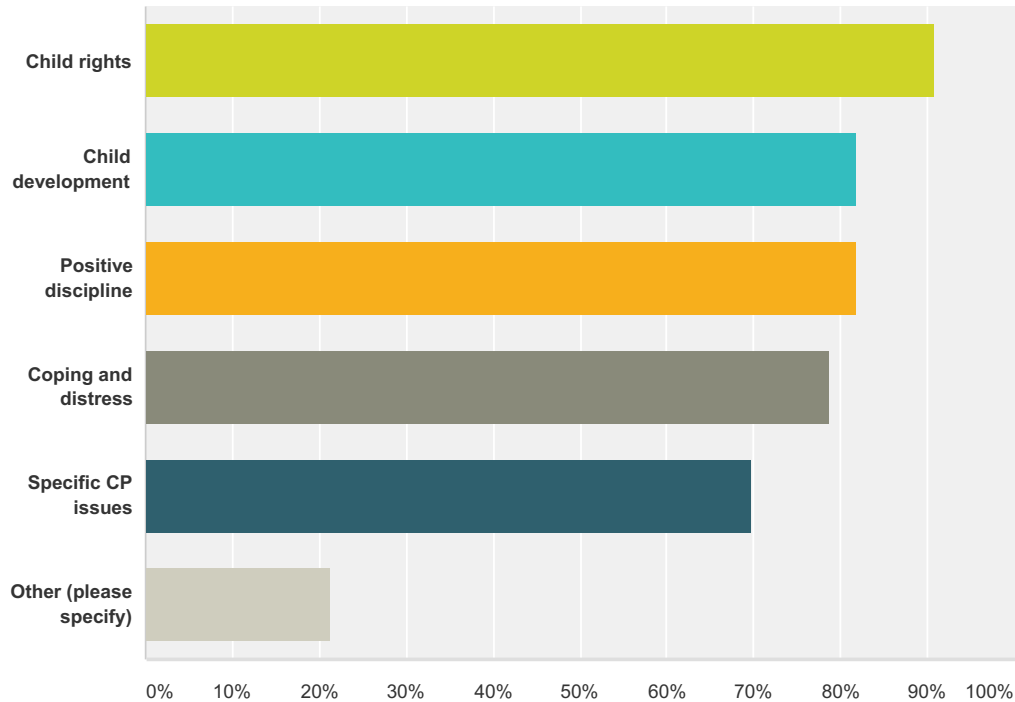

Q19 For your psychosocial community-based programs, what specific types of psychosocial support are being provided for adults?

Answered: 32 Skipped: 20

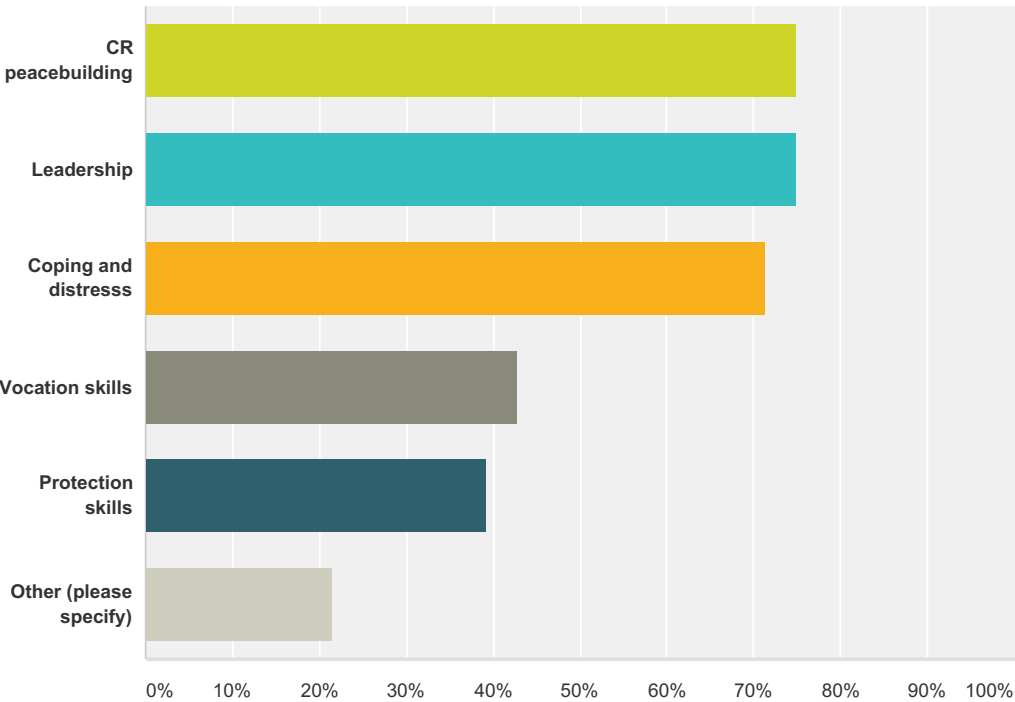

Q20 For your community based parenting programs, what skills or knowledge are built in parents who participate?

Answered: 33 Skipped: 19

Q21 For your life skills trainings for children and youth, what skills are taught?

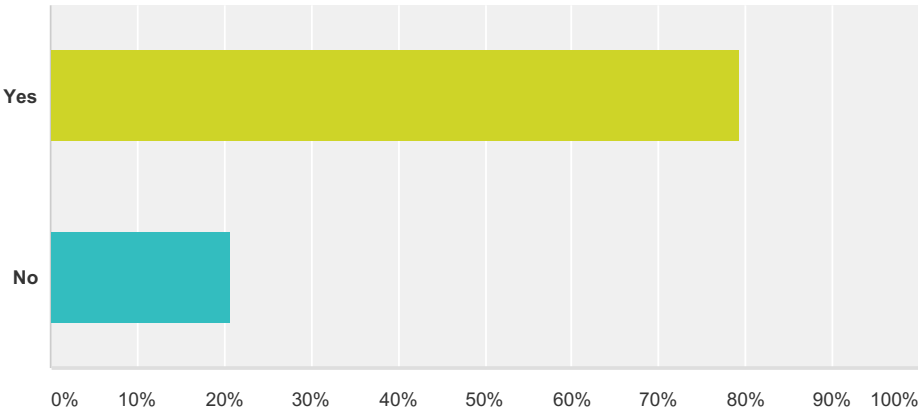

Answered: 28 Skipped: 24

Q22 Are there common, inter-agency or agency specific standards in place for community-based child protection programs?

Answered: 34 Skipped: 18

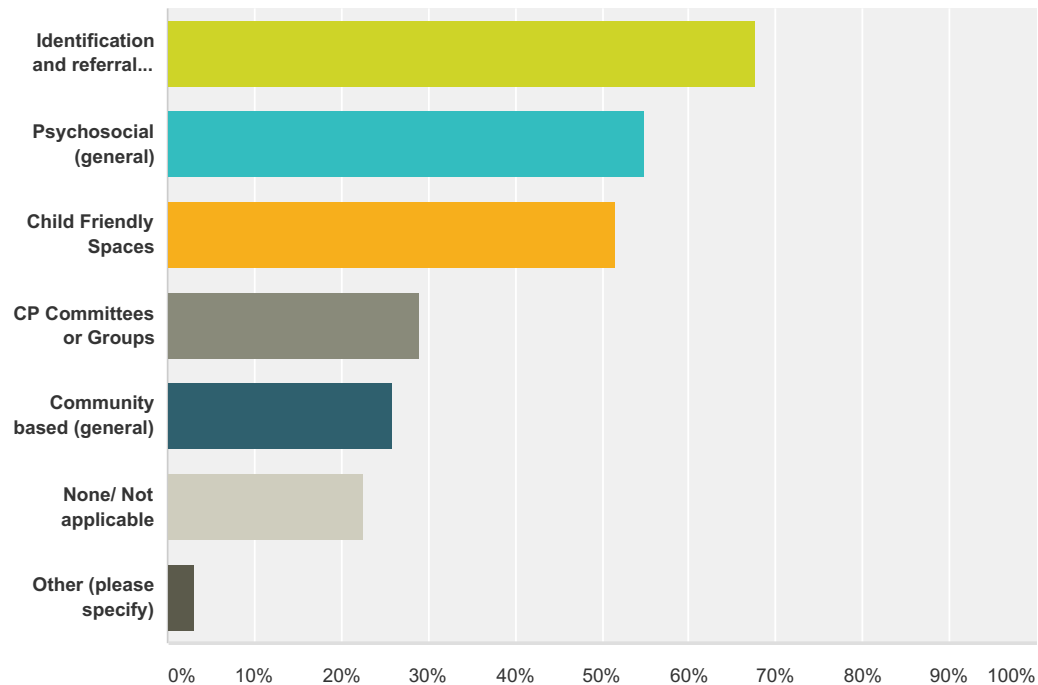

Q23 If yes, common agency-specific standards for what types of programs?

Answered: 31 Skipped: 21

Q24 If yes, common interagency standards for what types of community-based programs?

Answered: 31 Skipped: 21

Q25 How were inter-agency standards developed?

Answered: 15 Skipped: 37

Q26 What are the main challenges in establishing effective and sustainable community-based child protection programs?

Answered: 25 Skipped: 27

Q27 What best practices from your operation would you like to share?

Answered: 18 Skipped: 34