الطفل

Child Safety Program

- Arabic Model works for eliminating child abuse.
- An independent child protection system spearheaded by JRF in 1997.
- The prevention and intervention services provided by JRCSP are unique in terms of their holistic and integrated approach to tackling child abuse.

JRF- CSP AIMS

- To improve child protection and create a safe and healthy environment for Jordanian children.
- To lower the rates of violence against children at home and school in targeted local communities and foster positive family dynamics through prevention programs and early interventions.
- To secure comprehensive rehabilitation services for child victims of violence and their families

JRF- CSP AIMS

- To educate the general public about definitions, forms, risk factors and consequences of child abuse, and provide insight into developmentally appropriate child-rearing practices.
- To raise the capacity of other child rights and protection organizations nationally through exchange of experiences, education and training.
